

FilterSnap Privacy Policy (08.12.2016)

Legalese

English Translation

The information FilterSnap, LLC (“FS”) gathers from users enables us to personalize and improve our services, and to allow our users to set up a user account that can be used to access FilterSnap. This policy describes the types of information we may collect when you access or use FilterSnap and our practices for using and disclosing that information. We may update our privacy policy from time to time. If we make material changes to how we treat our users' personal information, we will post the new privacy policy on this page

Hello. This will explain how we use your data.

Information You Provide to Us

We receive and store any information you enter on the FilterSnap website or provide to us in any other way. The types of information collected may include your name, age, gender, zip code, e-mail address, cell phone number, occupation, hometown, college, personal interests, nickname, friend's list and other information that you enter. You may choose not to provide us with certain information, but then you may not be able to take advantage of many of our special features. The information you provide is used for such purposes as allowing you to interact with other users, responding to your requests for certain information, products and services, customizing the advertising and content you see, and communicating with you about promotions and features.

We collect the information that you choose to enter into FilterSnap.

Information Collected Automatically

We receive and store certain types of information automatically whenever you interact with the FilterSnap website. FilterSnap automatically receives and records information on our server logs from your browser including your hardware model, operating system version, unique device identifiers, and mobile network information including phone number, browser type, IP address, cookie information, and the page you requested.

Our website collects some information automatically, like your IP address and what browser you use.

Information Collection Technologies

The technologies we use for automatic information collection may include cookies (or mobile cookies). A cookie is a small file placed on your device. It may be possible to refuse to accept cookies by activating the appropriate setting in your browser. However, if you select this setting you may be unable to access certain parts of our website or application.

We are giving you cookies. Not to eat, but to remember who you are, and make your experience even more awesome.

How We Use Information We Collect

We use information that we collect about you or that you provide to us to maintain, protect and improve the FilterSnap service and website and to provide other information, products or services that you request from us. We may also give you notices about your account and changes to any products or services that we offer.

We use the information that we collect to provide and improve FilterSnap. We may share your information to help provide you with better services, but we will not share or sell your information to any advertisers. However, we may share your information with a 3rd party if they referred you to FilterSnap.

The usage information we collect helps us to improve the FilterSnap service and website and to deliver a better and more personalized experience by enabling us to estimate our audience size and usage patterns, store information about your preferences, and customize the website according to your individual interests and recognize you when you use the application.

In addition, we may disclose personal information that we collect or you provide, to our subsidiaries and affiliates; to third parties that referred you to FilterSnap; to contractors, service providers and other third parties we use to support our business; or to a buyer or other successor in the event of a sale or transfer of some or all of FilterSnap's business.

FilterSnap processes personal information on our servers in many countries around the world. We may process your personal information on a server located outside the country where you live.

We will use information as required by law. We will ask for your consent before using information for a purpose other than those that are set out in this Privacy Policy.
